

We Can Help!

We are staffed by adoptive parents who possess extensive knowledge of special education and medical needs, as well as firsthand experience parenting children with emotional, mental health, and trauma-based needs.

If you are interested in these adoption and post-guardianship support services, please contact us:

518.426.2888

AdoptionNavigationServices@northernrivers.org

For information on other services Northern Rivers Family of Services offers, visit:

www.northernrivers.org

Founded where the Mohawk and Hudson meet, like the rivers that shaped our region, Northern Rivers Family of Services helps change lives by shaping the future of those we serve throughout the Capital Region and beyond. Northern Rivers is a family of human services agencies that work together and are committed to helping children, adults, and families.

Formed in 2012, Northern Rivers is the parent organization to Parsons Child & Family Center (founded in 1829 in Albany) and Northeast Parent & Child Society (founded in 1888 in Schenectady). Our quality of care, depth of programs, combined size, and passion for the mission make us a leading human services provider.

Informed by our nearly 200-year heritage, our 1,400-strong workforce provides services for 16,000 children, adults, and families throughout 35 counties throughout New York State.

Main Office
60 Academy Road
Albany, NY 12108
518.426.2600

www.northernrivers.org

ADOPTION NAVIGATION SERVICES

Adoption Navigation Services

Northern Rivers' Adoption Navigation Services helps families formed through adoption and guardianship find necessary resources for the variety of issues and needs that arise after finalization.

Trained professionals support adoptive and post-guardianship families, while empowering them for growth and enabling positive outcomes for all involved.

What We Offer

- A helpline (518.426.2888) for information and referral services.
- Connection to a network of trauma-sensitive practitioners and agencies in the region that provide a variety of services to families who have adopted or have post-guardianship agreements.
- The opportunity to access extensive resources, support groups, adoption-focused parent training, clinical support, emotional support, and direction to help families navigate the complexities of adoption, and post-guardianship arrangements.
- A team of trauma-knowledgeable professionals with an understanding of children's crises and the importance of permanency.

Who Is Eligible?

Anyone who has an adopted child younger than age 21 is eligible to use this free service, as well as families who have legal guardianship or a kinGAP agreement for a child younger than age 21.

The New York State Office of Children and Family Services (OCFS) has provided funding for this grant.

Office of Children and Family Services