

Get Fit, Get Reimbursed

GET REIMBURSED FOR UP TO $600 – JUST FOR STAYING ACTIVE!

Get reimbursed for up to $400 for going to the gym, and your spouse can earn up to $200 for a total of $600 per family!* Here's how to get started:

1. Join a Gym

You may join any qualified gym or exercise center that is open to the general public. Fees paid for attending aerobic/fitness classes at a qualified health club that do not require an annual membership are also eligible for reimbursement. A qualified gym or exercise center houses exercise equipment for the purpose of physical exercise. Memberships in sports clubs, country clubs, weight loss clinics, spas, or other similar facilities are not eligible.

2. Visit the Gym

Go to the gym 50 times within six months – about two times per week. Use the Gym Participation Log to record your visits. Be sure to have it signed by the instructor/facility each time you go. Alternately, you may provide a printed record of your visits from the gym or receipts that indicate each time you have visited the center.

3. Complete the Gym Reimbursement Form and Submit All Documentation

Complete the Gym Reimbursement Form, along with your gym participation log(s), a copy of your current bill, and proof of payment. Forms and documentation for activities completed in 2019 must be received by January 31, 2020. Mail all documentation to:

CDPHP

Subscriber is entitled to $200 every six months. Spouse is entitled to $100 every six months. Spouse must be a dependent enrolled under the subscriber's coverage. Not all policies have dependent coverage. See plan contract for complete benefit information.*
